Re: MB Docket No. 07-148/Quarterly Report on Transition Partner Consumer Education

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Starz Entertainment, LLC ("Starz"), a leading provider of premium movie channels, is pleased to continue its participation as a DTV.gov Transition Partner and submits this second quarterly report of its consumer education efforts. Starz continues to believe that its provision of a wide variety of popular high-definition movies and other highly desirable digital programming will facilitate the digital transition.

As Starz explained in its April 9 Quarterly Report, the premium movie channels distributed by Starz do not have commercial breaks. Nonetheless, Starz is producing public service announcement(s) to educate viewers about the digital transition, which it expects to complete during the third quarter of 2008 and then to begin airing on its channels. Again, as previously reported, Starz also will make such public service announcement(s) available to multi-channel video programming distributors and other third parties and expects to do so during the third quarter.

If you have any questions regarding the above information and activities, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

/s/
